

IICA organises training on Legislative Drafting and Innovation law

The School of Corporate Law, IICA organised a 1-day training programme on legislative drafting and Innovation law in India at Gujarat National Law University (GNLU), Gandhinagar, Gujarat, on August 9, 2014.

Topics such as legislative drafting and approval process in India, best practices from a Government of India perspective and challenges/concepts in codification of innovation and confidential information were explored through a participatory dissemination and interactive discussion approach.

Expert faculty included Dr. G.N. Raju, Mr. K.V. Kumar (Joint Secretary & Legislative Counsel and Deputy Legislative Counsel, Union Ministry of Law & Justice respectively) and IICA School of Corporate Law personnel, (Prof. Pyla N. Rao and Mr. Aditya Prakash Rao). This specialized training was supported by Microsoft and United States Patents and Trademark Office (USPTO).