

Two-day In-Company Training Programme on
Companies Act 2013: Issues and Challenges
28th -29th November 2016 | SJVN Limited, Shimla

The School of Corporate Governance and Public Policy successfully conducted the Two-day In-Company Training Programme for Senior Officials of SJVN Limited on “Companies Act 2013: Issues & Challenges” on 28th -29th November 2016 at Hotel Holiday Home, Shimla. The programme was designed to provide an overview on latest amendments in the Companies Act 2013 & Corporate Governance regulations.

A total of ten sessions were covered in two-day programme and the most pertinent areas under Companies Act & corporate governance such as Modern Corporations- Regulations & Governance, The Companies Act 2013: Bird’s Eye View, SEBI (Listing Agreement and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations 2015, Secretarial Standards: Relevance and Practice, Transparency & Disclosure for better Corporate Governance, Internal Financial Control, Exemption for Government Companies under Companies Act 2013, Managing Corporate Social Responsibility – Engaging Stakeholders, Role of a Company Secretary & KMP: Practice perspective and Serious Frauds Investigation Office (SFIO) – Role in Vigilance & Fraud Management etc.

In this programme in-house faculties as well as few outsource faculties engaged in the different session. The in-house faculties namely Dr. Niraj Gupta, Head, SCG&PP, Dr. Garima Dadhich, Assistant Professor, SCG&PP and invited resource persons such as Mr. Prashant Saran, Ex – Whole Time Member, SEBI and Dr. S. Kumar Corporate Advisor and Advocate Lawmax Associates.

Most of the participants in the programme were senior level officials of the SJVN Limited, one level below the board. The participants appreciated the programme content, faculty and training topics. All the participants received certification of completion for the training programme. The Programme was directed by Dr. Niraj Gupta, Associate Professor & Head and coordinated by Mr. Biranchi N P Panda, Sr. Consultant.