

"Australia and India: Common Goals in Corporate Law and Corporate Governance Reforms"

The Indian Institute of Corporate Affairs (IICA), the Australian High Commission and the Australia India Institute (AII) collaborated to organise a public lecture on "Australia and India: Common Goals in Corporate Law and Corporate Governance Reforms", by The Hon. Dr. R.P. Austin on 13th May 2013, at The Imperial, New Delhi. His Excellency Mr. Patrick Suckling, Australian High Commissioner to India, welcomed Dr. Austin, former Justice of the New South Wales (NSW) Supreme Court, Australian legal expert, distinguished academic and leader of corporate law reform. Thereafter, Mr. Dhanendra Kumar, Principal Advisor, IICA addressed the audience followed by Dr. Austin's lecture. The vote of thanks was delivered by Mr. Vinod Mirchandani, Country Director (India), AII. The event was attended by a cross section of senior professionals related to Corporate Governance and Corporate Law in India.

Brief Profile of Dr. Austin

Presentation Delivered by Dr. Austin

Text of Dr. Austin's Lecture