

Two-day Re-orientation Programme on the Companies Act 2013: Issues and Challenges

19-20 January 2016 | SJVN Limited Shimla

The School of Corporate Governance and Public Policy successfully conducted the two-day training programme for Senior Officials of SJVN Limited on “Companies Act 2013: Issues & Challenges” from 19-20 January, 2016 at Hotel Holiday Home, Shimla. The programme was designed to provide an overview on latest amendments in the Companies Act 2013 & Corporate Governance regulations.

A total of ten sessions were covered in two-day programme and the most pertinent areas under Companies Act & corporate governance such as Modern Corporations- Regulations & Governance, Related Party Transactions: Key Issues, Audit Committee & Internal Financial Control, the Companies Act 2013: Introduction and Key Amendments, Independent Director: Roles & Responsibilities, Managing Corporate Social Responsibility – Engaging Stakeholders, Building Ethical Corporation, Role of a Company Secretary and other KMP in a company – Practice perspective, Shareholder Rights and Secretarial Standards in Companies Act 2013 and Serious Frauds Investigation Officer (SFIO) etc. In this programme in-house faculty members were engaged for the session.

Most of the participants in the programme were senior level officials of the SJVN Limited, one level below the board. The participants appreciated the programme content, faculty and training topics. All the participants received certification of completion for the training programme.

Indian Institute of Corporate Affairs
Partners in Knowledge. Governance. Transformation.

