

Programme on Emerging Opportunities in Agricultural Financing for Bank of Baroda Officers

School of Finance conducted a training programme for 31 Officers of Bank of Baroda on “Emerging Opportunities in Agricultural Financing” from July 27 to August 1, 2015. It was an innovative 6-day programme offered in association with Indian Agricultural Research Institute (IARI, popularly known as Pusa Institute). The target group was middle level officers representing 31 regions of the Bank.

The objective of the programme was to make the participants understand the importance of agriculture credit, its trend and diversification; and to develop the skills to tap emerging opportunities in agriculture. The programme contained 3-days of field visits. The group experienced the challenges of handling people from a heterogeneous mindset and developed the skills to handle such situation.

The programme attracted the attention of Doordarshan and was telecast on national television in their popular programme Krishi Darshan.
